

Help Elect a Member of our IFPTE Family: Charity Kennedy

Charity Kennedy is running to represent the people of Sedgwick County as their Treasurer. Charity is a proud member of SPEEA/IFPTE Local 2001 and she has served the Wichita community as a volunteer, including her work with Big Brothers Big Sisters and Beauties and Beasts.

Charity stands with IFPTE and working families in providing opportunities for all residents of Sedgwick County. She will fight for:

- Reducing Barriers to Paying Taxes – Making it easy as possible for Sedgwick County residents to do their civic duty
- Improving Customer Service – Giving Sedgwick County residents the level of service they expect and deserve
- Increasing Use of Technology – Improving efficiency and saving Sedgwick County taxpayers money

Now more than ever, it is critical that we elect people at every level of government who understand the challenges being faced by working families.

Take the “YES I CAN” Pledge!

“I can help elect a strong, pro-worker leader for Sedgwick County Treasurer, Charity Kennedy, by contributing to her campaign today.”

Make contributions easily and securely by logging on to:

<https://secure.actblue.com/donate/charitykennedy>

This communication is paid for by the International Federation of Professional and Technical Engineers and is intended only for its members. Who you support in this election is your decision. Your union has done the research and believes that Charity Kennedy is the best choice for Sedgwick County working families.

IFPTE Endorses One of Its Own, Charity Kennedy for Sedgwick County Treasurer

Kennedy is a member of SPEEA/IFPTE Local 2001 and Long-time Community Activist

WASHINGTON, DC – IFPTE is proud to announce our endorsement of SPEEA/IFPTE Local 2001 member Charity Kennedy for Treasurer of Sedgwick County, Kansas. Kennedy has deep roots in Wichita and the surrounding community.

IFPTE's executive officers provided the following comments:

“Charity has proven her effectiveness and commitment as a fighter for working Kansans through her service in the union and the community,” said IFPTE President Paul Shearon. “She is well-known in Wichita as a tireless advocate for IFPTE, particularly SPEEA, and its members. We are proud that she is running for the Sedgwick County Treasurer and we are happy to support her as not only one of our own, but also as a union supporter through and through.”

IFPTE Secretary-Treasurer/Legislative Director Matt Biggs also commented, saying “It is obviously great to see that a strong member of the IFPTE family is seeking elected office in Sedgwick County, Kansas. When elected, I have no doubt that Charity will bring her union card to work with her each day by looking out for the interest of working families in Sedgwick County.”

In addition to her union involvement, Charity has also served her community as a volunteer for Big Brothers Big Sisters and Beauties and Beasts. She will bring her experience as a process engineer to the Sedgwick County Treasurer's Office, elevating the taxpaying system to better serve the county's residents and businesses.

This communication is paid for by the International Federation of Professional and Technical Engineers and is intended only for its members. Who you support in this election is your decision. Your union has done the research and believes that Charity Kennedy is the best choice for Sedgwick County working families.

